HAYES AND WHEELER.

try in nominating a ticket which will be heartily accepted and indorsed by the republicans and reformers in all perts of the country. The Convention has rage and devotion which it brought to the seon of a tick t entitled to the respect and confidence the nation and for the manner with which it rejected other. The nomination is the triumph of reform, the public service, the restoration of responsibility and accountability in the administration of the government. Mr. Hayes is all that pertains to the great principles and policies of reform and retrenchment and integrity of administration. As acceptable as Mr. Bristow, less known to the people, perhaps, he is widely known as a man with clear head, sound judgment, patriotic record, and above all clean hands, a stranger to the lobby and with no entangling business alliance with subsidy seekers or gamblers in the national credit. For the nomination of a man so pure, publicly and privately, and at the same time so identified with the great reformatory politics that the prevailing corruption has made so essential, the Convention will deserve and receive the greateril thanks of the country. We have no lears for the result of the election. The battle was practically won at Cincinnati. It is immaterial who may be nominated at St. Louis. The republican party can be saved from the only defeat that threatened it."

The Times says:—"The nomination of R. H. Hayes for President by the Cincinnati Convention is a surprise to the whole country and a bitter disappointment to the party managers whose combinations have thus been brought to haught." The article speaks of him as a quiet and rather obscure Ohio gentleman who has failed to improve his opportunities to become distinguished. "His candidacy will create no such ferror as would that of Blaine, the magnetic partisan leader. Whether he can be beaten will depend on whether wisdom or folly shall provail at St. Louis."

The Inter-Ocean, after reviewing his political life, his great popularity in Ohio and his standing and ability, declares that, "Mr. Blaine excepted, Governor Hayes has as many elements of positive leadership as any man whose name came before the Convention. His name is more intimately associated with recent victories. No man could bring out the full strength of the party more than he will; on he man can the warm partisans of other candidates unite so readily. He is able and experienced; a man to be proud of; a candidate that will arouse all the esthusiasm, call out able and experenced; a man to be proud of; a candialte that will arouse all the enthusiasm, call out all the loyalty of the republican masses."

The local press agree that the nomination of Mr.
Wheeler for the second place on the ticket was the best and strongest that could be made. The first announcement of the nomination was not received with the most marked enthusiasm, but there is a feeling among binking men that the nomination will prove wise, and that the support they will receive here will be of the strongest kind.

The Chicago Evening Journal, in giving a sketch of the life of Mr. Hayes, concludes with the assortion that withe responsibilities of the Chief Magistracy of the Republic could not fall upon a nobler or a safer man than Rutherford B. Hayes. The same may be said of the momination of Mr. Wheeler for Vice President, whose name gives decided strength to the ticket. In this city and vicinity, where the Presidential preferences of the republicans were divided between Blaine and Bristow, the nominations were received with quiet satisfaction and cheerful acquirescence, which goes to show that his Iriends were right in claiming that Mr. Hayes, though nobody's first choice, was everybody's second choice."

The Pest and Mail says:—"While the West was dis-

choice."

The Pest and Mail says:—"While the West was disappointed in the failure to nominate Mr. Blaine, it greatly prefers Mr. Hayes to any of the other candidates and will give him the same earnest, cordial and united support it would have given the favorite. In view of the ante-election heat the nomination is conspicuously judicious and will call out the full independent vote. The value of Mr. Wheeler's name on the ticket cannot be overestimated. Under two such leaders victory is secure."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17, 1876. Commenting on the nominations at Cincinnati, the Pall, this morning, says:-

"We regard this as a strong ticket. The nomination of Hayes will consolidate the republican party. The country has heard less of him than Blaine, Morton, Conkling or Bristow, and it has heard only good. We to not know a prominent man with a more impregua-

The Alla comments as follows:—
"In common with the vast majority of the republicans in this city, we ited a measure of disappointment at the deleat of Blaine as a candidate for President, but this effect will pass away the more they know of Governor Hayes and his antecedents. Of hil the candidates before the Convention, next to Blaine, Governor Hayes as the more popular. The general sontiment, so far as it has found expression, seems to be that Hayes is the second choice of almost every one, and that the nomination will secure the united support of the party. The only soreheads, if any, will be found among the federal brigade."

Mr. Warmouth said:—"Every Liberal Republican in the Union will support the ticket, and Louisiana will give 25,000 majority for it."

AFTER THE NOMINATIONS.

At the principal hotels last evening there was but ment on the Cincinnati nominations. A cheerful, healthy tone has taxen the place of a dread of the Unknown. The republicans now know for whom to cheer and they offeer accordingly, but seemingly not with great heartiness or noise. The democrats are now the more demonstrative. They have found the men to denounce on the other side: but their denon ciatious lack the true spirit because they are not all agreed as to who shall be their own candidate, and bence have to vent some of their ill-favor toward Til-There are at the present time but few representative

Another was organized last night to the Ninth ward, of which Colonel John S. Ellison is President; Andrew Page, Secretary, and Charles J. Rose, Tronsorer.

At a meeting of the John E. Dowley Republican Association, held at No. 184 East Broadway, hast evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted, after speeches in its support by Colonel A. J. H. Duganne, Charles Abbott, Dr. Powell and others:—

Duganne, Charles Abbott, Dr. Powell and others:—

Resolved. That this association indorses the platform adouted at Cincinnati, and does kereby pledge a whole-tonized acquere to Eutherford B. Hayes and William A. Wheeler, the standard bearers for 1876.

Resolved. That the man who said, in the midst of our war for the Union, when offered a nomination for Cengress. "The soldier who would leave the gray at this time ought to be scalped," is just the citizen now to scalp the cumies of our soldiers and their work which we maintain.

Resolved, That the man who, on their own battle ground, defeated those strong democratic leaders, Fendicton and Thurman, and their follower, William Allen, is the leader who we want to roat all vestiges of copperheadism North and south.

Everybody claused some affinity or other with Onio on account of Hayes' nomination. There are no appointees from Ohio, however, in the Custom House.

Wendell Philips insists that Mr. Morton's morals are immoral.

Wendell Philips insists that Mr. Morton's morals are immoral.

Senator Bruce says he will stand by his colored brother Pinethack. The weather was hot at Cincinnat: and hotter forther South.

Governor Davis, of Texas, says the only way to save the country and secure victory for the republican party is to resume speels payments.

Governor Van Zandt, of Rhode Island, says he has his eye axed on New York bribers.

Politicians think Richard H. Dana injured Bristow by insisting that he was the only man who could carry Massachusetts.

Governor Ingersoil still contends that Mr. Blaine's reputation is as spotless as a star, and congratulates him on not having a certificate of character from the Congress of Confederates.

Governor Woodford says "haif a cherry is better than none." In other words, he takes what he can get.
Governor Rice wants "reform" printed in gold letters ou all the republican banners. That's a good idea. Don Campron thinks the Pennsylvania delegates were cantankereds.

John Casbow, of Brooklyn, says the ticket is a rusher. The anti-Cuntom House New Yorkers said, months ago, that Hayes was the coming man.

Seven scenies to be Governor Hayes; lucky number. The Union League Club forks are not happy.
Senator Anthony beneves the name of Wheeler is a tower of strength to the ticket.

Jay Gould believes the ticket is a mistake.

Friends of Mr. Blaine think he will now take a rest. Congressman S. B. Chittenden is certain of success in November next.

Captain Rynders thought Roscoe Conkling would get the nomination because his forces were so thoroughly organized. He thinks Tilden can beat Mayes in New York State.

A strong friend of Elihu B. Washburne says he will be the next Secretary of State, because he made Medili keep his name out of the Convention.

Kings county will have a monster ratification meeting in two weeks. The leaders hope to have Conkling, Hayes and Woodford as speakers.

Mayer Wickham says nothing.

Comptroller Green thinks Governor Tilden will be nominated at St. Louis and elected by the people. He will regret his removal from Albany; but what can't be cured must be endured.

Brooklyn's Mayor, Schroeder, believes the Germans will raily for Rayes.

THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION.

Frederick O. Prince, Secretary of the Democratic National Committee, arrived here to-day and will act with the local committees in perfecting arrangements for the Democratic National Convention. Augustus E. Schell, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is expected here to night and other gentlemen of note will probably arrive next week.

All the hotels are busily engaged completing their arrangements for the accommedation of the State dele-gations and other guests, and, from present appear-ances, there will be no lack of room for all who may visit the city during the session of the Convention.
